Annual Resolutions

This link takes you to a list of all of the resolutions your council needs to approve on an annual basis and an actual template for each resolution.

Council Key 3 Orientation

Responsibilities and guidelines for the council Key 3, which consists of the council president, council commissioner, and Scout executive. They meet informally as necessary to ensure proper coordination of the work of the council. They furnish liaisons between the commissioner staff and the various committees of the council.

Council Nominating Committee Worksheet (No. 513-331)

The local council nominating committee has the important responsibility of selecting a slate of council leaders who will be responsible for achieving the council objectives and by so doing increase the effectiveness of Scouting.

Council President's Orientation

These pieces are designed to be used by an Area director when giving orientation to one or more new council Presidents.

The information can easily be used in a group setting with multiple new Presidents and is designed to last about three hours. This is the preferred method.
