Kandra Dickerson—Central Region Commissioner

A Scouting veteran of more than 20 years, Kandra began her Scouting trail when her son joined Cub Scouting. Since then, she has served in multiple unit, district, council, and area positions and was named Central Region commissioner in 2017. In this role, Kandra provides leadership to commissioners serving units in all of the Central Region councils. She also continues as a member of the Mid-Iowa Council Executive Board.

Kandra has enjoyed being a commissioner for three National Scout Jamborees, most recently working in Bravo Base Camp at the Summit in July. She has served as a faculty member at Philmont and the Florida Sea Base for six years, was director of Mid-Iowa Council's 2013 Wood Badge course, and is a recipient of the Silver Antelope, Silver Beaver, Cross and Flame, and Philmont Training Center Masters Track awards. She is no stranger to Philmont's backcountry either.

A retired CPA, Kandra and her husband, John, live in a suburb of Des Moines, Iowa. They have two children, John Michael and Kasi. Kandra's most meaningful Scouting experience was pinning on John Michael's Eagle badge.
