Del Bishop—Western Region Commissioner

Please welcome Del Bishop as the Western Region commissioner. Del is from Woodinville, Washington, and is a longtime Scouter and an Eagle Scout.

As an adult, Del has been a unit-level volunteer with both Cub Scouting and Boy Scouting. He served from 1991 to 2015 on the Chief Seattle Council board in several capacities, most notably as council president and as chair of the Washington Jamboree in 2006.

Del has also served as a member of the Western Region board as Area 1 president, Program Impact chair, Program vice president, and World Jamboree chair and on the Silver Antelope Nominating Committee.

He received the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award in 2001, the Silver Beaver Award in 2003, and the Silver Antelope Award in 2013.

Del is married to Patricia and has a son, Colin, who received his Eagle Scout Award in 2007. Del retired in 2010 as vice president office manager of JE Dunn Construction in Seattle.
