Topic: Duty, Respect, and Honor

Takeaway: This meeting is an opportunity to involve all leaders as they share best practices for ways that units can reinforce the Scout Oath and Scout Law in their activities. Doing our duty, being respectful, and honoring others are all important parts of being a Cub Scout.

GENERAL SESSION

Lead a discussion on ways the Scouting program and its activities can be used to reinforce a sense of duty in the youth and adults in our program.

Questions for Discussion

- What does it mean to do our duty?
- How do we help our Cub Scouts do their duty?
- What does it mean to show respect? How can we help our Cub Scouts to be respectful?
- What does it mean to honor others? How can we help our Cub Scouts to honor others?
- What can we take away from this session?
- What can we do within our community to show that we are good Cub Scout leaders and Cub Scouts?

- Participate in Scouting for Food.
- Participate in flag ceremonies.
- Participate in parades.
- Participate in conservation projects.
- Participate in community service projects.
- Send thank you cards to service men and women, police officers, first responders, nurses, and doctors.
- Visit veterans' homes and nursing facilities.
- Be kind to and help others.
- Smile.
- Say thank you.
- Volunteer within your community (races, Special Olympics, other community events).

Share best practices from the units.

How can the pack committee support the dens and pack with activities? Some ideas include:

- Communicating about upcoming community events.
- Budgeting pack funds to assist with service projects.
- Working with the chartered organization to discover needs within the community.

RESOURCES

Closing: I Made a Promise

Cub Scout #1: I made a promise. I said that whatever I did, I would do the best I could.

Cub Scout #2: I made a promise to serve my God and my country the best I could.

Cub Scout #3: I made a promise to help other people the best I could.

Cub Scout #4: I made a promise to obey the Scout Oath and Scout Law the best I could.

Cub Scout #5: I have done my best. I will do my best, because I am the best. I am a Cub Scout.
