

Camp Director and Program Director Continuing Education Certification Process and Application

National Camping School Camp Director and Program Director certification is required to operate a Scouting America long-term camping program. The National Camping School Camp Director and Program Director recertification courses were sunset in 2020. This Continuing Education Certification (CEC) pathway has been developed to help experienced camp directors and program directors stay relevant in their training and reduce the need to attend an additional full week of National Camping School.

Certification from a National Camping School for Long-term (Resident) Camp Director or Long-term (Resident) Program Director (2021 or later) is required prior to exercising the CEC option. CEC is not a requirement. An individual can still choose to attend National Camping School every five seasons.

CEC will become available after October 1st in the 2025 season for those who attended NCS in 2021. Those who certified at National Camping School in 2021 can continue the requirements towards this recertification option in 2022 and so on. CEC will be valid for 5 seasons from the approval date.

Those interested in this CEC option must meet the below conditions and requirements to be recertified:

CONDITIONS:

- Certified at a National Camping School for Long-term (Resident) Camp Director or Long-term (Resident) Program Director in or after 2021. The certification is either current or no more than 6 months from expiration date at time of application.
- An applicant may not use the CEC option consecutively. Once the CEC expires (5 seasons), the individual must attend a full week of National Camping School to remain certified.
- An applicant must meet the requirements listed below and must fulfill an annual continuing education option as shown in the below charts over the five-year period prior to applying. Note: One chart is for Camp Director, another for Program Director.
- Submit the Application for Continuing Education Certification for Resident Camp or Resident Program Director (last page) to their local council.
 - The local council Scout Executive or designee must verify the requirements have been completed prior to submission and approval of the application.
- Once verified and approved by the local council, the application is submitted to National Outdoor Programs. Application must be sent to NCS@Scouting.org. Upon verification of the application, the applicant's council will be billed $250 for the recertification.
- The National Training & Development subcommittee will review and approve or decline the application.

REQUIREMENTS:

Applicant must meet all requirements prior to submitting an application.

- 1) Manage or serve as a Long-term Camp or Long-term Program director for a Nationally Accredited long-term camp program at least 3 of the 5 seasons during certification period. This could include winter or spring camp as defined on the council authorization and intent to operate. Serving in this role at a conditionally accredited camp does not meet this requirement for that season.
 - a) Minimum of 15 weeks of camp service over the 5-year period.
 - b) Definition of management in this requirement: a manager must be a year-round full-time employee managing a camping operation (ex. Director of Support Service, Director of Camping etc.) Management for this requirement does not apply to a Camp Director who manages a program director at a long-term camp.

- 2) NCAP (National Camp Accreditation Program) Assessment Process – Must complete both a and b annually during the years you manage or serve as a Long-term (Resident) Camp or Long-term (Resident) Program Director.
 - a) Participate in or complete as appropriate national standards annual update webinar or online course.
 - b) Create and fulfill the annual CCIP for their specific operation – verified through the Declaration of Readiness.

- 3) During each calendar year of the 5-year NCS certification tenure, applicant must complete a continuing education option from one of the columns in the charts below for the applicable position. The options do not have to be done in the order listed. Applicant may not use the same option more than once. Verification of completion is through the applicant's local council Scout Executive.

- 4) Once the requirements are met and the application is submitted to the National Service Center, the applicant will be invited to and must attend an online recertification training (no more than 2 hours). This course will cover an NCAP review of current standards and any other updated information.

- 5) Once all conditions have been met and requirements 1-4 above are completed, the applicant will receive their NCS certification.
