THE MESSENGERS OF PEACE PROGRAM APPLICATION PROCESS

Since 2011, the Messengers of Peace Award has represented the Boy Scouts of America's commitment to community service and the idea of working to better a global community. Those who have earned the Messengers of Peace Award in the past have completed thousands of hours of community service in the areas of personal growth, community development, and collective results. The Messengers of Peace (MoP) program has evolved to empower Scouts to live out the values of peace every day — through action, attitude, and advocacy. Rooted in the Sustainable Development Goals, MoP invites Scouts to take the lead in building a better world. The Messengers of Peace Program is meant to help scouts recognize and frame their goals and projects towards this end, and to help scouts foster peace and community involvement through leadership, peacebuilding and environmental action. MoP is not just about counting hours. It's about how Scouts live out peace — at home, in school, and in service.

COMPLETE ALL THE REQUIREMENTS

Confirm that the requirements listed in the PROGRAM GUIDE have been completed. There are no age restrictions when earning the Messengers of Peace Awards. The MESSENGER OF PEACE ADVOCATE award (purple-edged ring) is approved by the Unit leader and can be entered in ScoutBook for recognition. The award is unrestricted and can be purchased in any scout shop. For consideration of the CHAMPION and AMBASSADOR Messengers of Peace Awards, approval must be received from your Messengers of Peace Project Advisor, and the Council's International Representative OR their designee, and the Scout Executive. A candidate for these awards must be registered members of Scouting America.

PREPARE THE MOP PROGRAM WORKSHEET

The most current worksheet must be used. It can be found in the PROGRAM GUIDE. The worksheet assists the Scout to organize their project information and shows the project process was approved and then properly accepted by all parties when finished. Ideally, it will be a proud reminder of a significant accomplishment.

COMPLETE THE APPLICATIONS

The Scout must complete the official application for the Messengers of Peace award level that is appropriate (ADVOCATE, CHAMPION, AMBASSADOR). No other form or application method is permitted. The applications can be found HERE. Careful review and thorough proofreading will help prevent delays. Unnecessary delays can be avoided by working with the unit advancement coordinator and/or Council International Representative.

1. Dates: All applicable date fields will be verified by the council.
2. Signatures: Applicant, Advisor, International Representative (OR Representative), and Scout Executive.
3. Attachments: Service project worksheet and any other relevant attachments.

COMPLETE ALL THE REQUIREMENTS

The advisor and International Representative OR designee signatures represent approval for the candidate to move forward with the application process for both the CHAMPION and AMBASSADOR awards.

SUBMIT TO COUNCIL SERVICE CENTER

A copy should be made of the application; service project worksheet; and other pertinent materials. Once copies are in safekeeping, the originals should be delivered to the council service center.

COUNCIL VERIFIES APPLICATION

Everything is checked against Scouting America records. If information in the Scouting America system or council files are incomplete, the Scout or Unit will be asked to provide certificates or other means of verification of information given. The regular use of ScoutBook for reporting advancement and service hours will help expedite this process.

If everything is correct, the council International Representative OR designee will provide a verification signature and send the original with the service project worksheet and other items to the Scout Executive for their approval.

At the council, the Scout Executive signs the application, certifying proper procedures were followed. The application is then entered into the Scouting America system and filed locally for Messengers of Peace CHAMPION and AMBASSADOR Awards.

Once the CHAMPION and AMBASSADOR award application is approved, Council may award the recipient with the appropriate MoP ring and certificate which can be obtained through National Supply by Council directly.

The MOP DISTINGUISHED PROJECT OF THE YEAR Award nomination must be forward to the Scouting America International Committee for selection AFTER it has been approved for forwarding by the nominee's Council. The Scouting America International Committee will choose a maximum of 5 (no minimum) awards per year and will directly award the recipient with a certificate, patch and medal in coordination with the recipient's council. Councils should make every effort to recognize these recipients at an appropriate venue or Court of Honor to promote the program and further recognize the recipient in their own community.
